Tito Biondi is a scientist. He never got over mourning the death of his wife, and he lives isolated from the world in a mobile home in the Nevada desert. He's working on a secret project for the US government. His only contact with the world is Stella, a woman who works in the only diner in the area. But one day he is forced to accept his nephews, Anita, (14), and Little Tito (7). When they become orphans, they are sent to live with him, expecting the legendary American Uncle, and instead finding a rather depressed professor, a desert, Stella... and the secrets of Area 51.
