MAESTROS

The film chronicles the Basque separatist movement's plans for kidnapping the Spanish Premier, Carrero Blanco. The abduction becomes an assassination when a car bomb kills Blanco in December of 1973. With the advent of democracy, the Basque movement undergoes a split. It's at this point that director Pontecorvo constructs references relevant to Italy in the 1970s. A political film handled with integrity. Gian Maria Volonté delivers a restrained but emotionally charged performance. Music by Ennio Morriconi.
