Valeria has her life completely figured out. She goes through men one after the other, without ever looking back. She coaches a female volleyball team, and her coaching go well beyond the rules of the game, teaching her girls how to be independent and to avoid pain when dealing with love. The only man she's ever lowered her guard for is her ex-boyfriend Marco who split up with her about one year before, breaking her heart. When after a very unusual accident, he suddenly comes back into her life, Valeria decides the time has come to exact her revenge on him. But it won't be as easy as she thinks...
